

“Leading Company Greece 2007”

For the second consecutive year, Titan emerged in 2007 as "Leading Company" in Greece in the context of the Hay Group survey among 315 enterprises in the country. The companies were evaluated by Board Presidents, CEOs and General Managers of companies. The criterion for becoming a leading company was the performance of the candidates in the following areas: Financial soundness, Long-term investment, International growth, Quality of products/services, Management of human capital, Corporate Social Responsibility, Innovation.

The prize was handed to TITAN's Managing Director, Dimitris Papalexopoulos by the Dep. Minister for Development, Stavros Kalafatis during a special ceremony (17 March 2008).
